What is Human Trafficking?

At any given time in 2016, an estimated 40.3 million people are in modern slavery, including 24.9 million in forced labor.

Human trafficking does not discriminate against gender, age, country, neighborhood, industry, etc.

Airline Ambassadors International

Nancy Board (NAB), Donna Hubbard (DH) and Andrea Hubert (AH) of U.S.-based NGO Airline Ambassadors International (AAI) have trained thousands of airline and airport personnel to deal with human trafficking. In August, AAI's "Can You See Me?" campaign was launched in the U.S. and in 2018, we started training ambassadors in their home countries.

What is Airline Ambassadors International?

AAI is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that provides training to airline and airport personnel to help them identify and report human trafficking. AAI has trained over 10,000 airline and airport personnel in the U.S. and in 2018, we started training ambassadors in their home countries.

What do you hope to accomplish with your training?

AAI's mission is to provide training to airline and airport personnel to help them identify and report human trafficking. AAI has trained over 10,000 airline and airport personnel in the U.S. and in 2018, we started training ambassadors in their home countries.

What is the scale of human trafficking in the world?

AAI is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that provides training to airline and airport personnel to help them identify and report human trafficking. AAI has trained over 10,000 airline and airport personnel in the U.S. and in 2018, we started training ambassadors in their home countries.
